

TREASURERS NOTES

FOR THE FEAST OF 'AZAMAT (GRANDEUR) MAY 16, 2024

For reflection:

“...the community of the Greatest Name cannot expect to be unaffected by the travails of society. Yet, though it is affected by these travails, it is not confused by them; it is saddened by humanity’s sufferings, but not paralysed by them.”

— The Universal House Of Justice, Ridván 2024

How is supporting the goals of the Faith a unique Bahá’í response to the needs of the times?

“To the loved ones in the Office of the Treasurer, Thank You so much for continuously keeping us updated (through various means) throughout the year about our spiritual and material progress towards the National Fund. Note: we received an unexpected $... late last week , and were very happy to give it all to help reach the goal!!

Much Love...”

Unrestricted (not earmarked) contributions towards the National Fund goal allow for flexibility in supporting the many activities of the Faith. The goal set by the National Spiritual Assembly for this year (2023-2024) is $48M.
