

TREASURERS NOTES

FOR THE FEAST OF ASMÁ’/NAMES

AUGUST 20, 2019

For Consultation

“At the level of the individual believer, attention to the needs of the funds of the Faith parallels the principles which govern multiple loyalties. The first loyalty of a Bahá’í is to the whole of mankind, for the benefit of the part is best achieved through the welfare of the whole. But this widest loyalty does not eliminate the lesser loyalties of love for one’s country, for the area in which one lives, or for one’s family. They all constitute a network of interdependent and mutually beneficial loyalties. So it is with the individual believer’s relationship to the International, Continental, National and Local Funds.”

— The Universal House of Justice, letter dated December 29, 1970

Why should the individual believer be concerned with all of these loyalties?
