

TREASURERS NOTES

FOR THE FEAST OF MULK/DOMINION FEBRUARY 6, 2017

For Consultation

“As far as the Cause is concerned, all the work must be kept going; all the funds need to be supported, both directly by the believers, and also by the making of contributions by Bahá’í institutions from one fund to another, which do not take the place of contributions from individuals—the source of the life-blood of the Cause.”

~ The Universal House of Justice, letter dated October 31, 1993

Whose responsibility is it to directly support the Funds?

FUND STORY

“Alláh’u’ Abhá!

I wanted to share with you a story of a musical instrument that is allowing me to give extra to the Fund. I am a private music teacher and recently was given an oboe by a Bahá’í friend with the instruction to sell the instrument and give the proceeds to the Fund.

I decided to keep the oboe, but give the valued amount to the Fund with the intention of renting it out to my students who occasionally need a back up while their instrument is in repair. In turn I have been sending the rental money to the Fund. This is an instrument that keeps on giving and I call it ‘Bahá’u’lláh’s oboe.’ I’m thrilled with the arrangement and so is my Bahá’í friend.

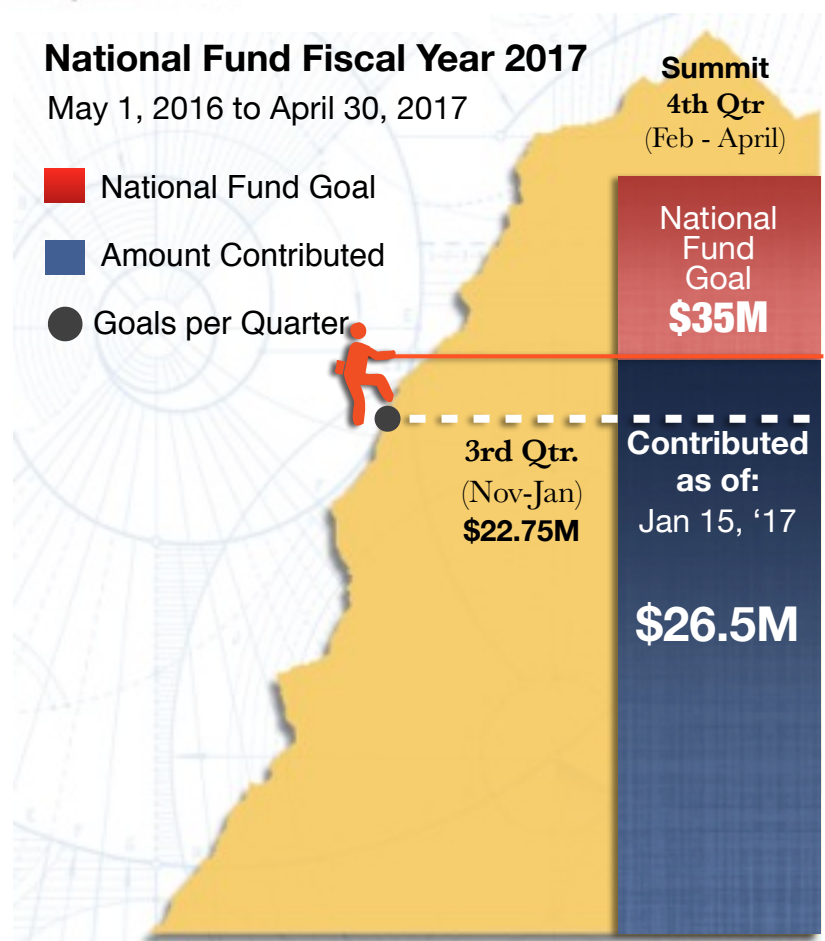

I’ve been making the contributions through the OCS link on my iPhone in honor of my friend.”
