

TREASURERS NOTES

FOR THE FEAST OF QAWL/SPEECH

NOVEMBER 22, 2017

For Consultation

“We must be like the fountain or spring that is continually emptying itself of all that it has and is continually being refilled from an invisible source. To be continually giving out for the good of our fellows undeterred by the fear of poverty and reliant on the unfailing bounty of the Source of all wealth and all good—this is the secret of right living.”

~ On behalf of Shoghi Effendi, in Bahá'í Funds: Contributions and Administration, p. 11

FUND STORY

The Office of the Treasurer received the following note:

“Please accept this contribution in honor and memory of our sweet son, who at the Feast of Rahmat, 1979, ran into his room to bring out 3 pennies for the Fund, saying ‘I wish I had more to give.’ A week later he passed away from a brain hemorrhage. He was 8. He was an angel.”
