APRIL 27, 2017

For Consultation

“The aim is to learn about how to participate in the material affairs of society in a way that is consistent with the divine precepts and how, in practical terms, collective prosperity can be advanced through justice and generosity, collaboration and mutual assistance.”

~ The Universal House of Justice, March 1, 2017

What are some ways Bahá'ís can participate in the material affairs of society consistent with divine precepts?

FUND STORY

The Office of the Treasurer received the message below from an individual believer:

“In response to the video (in your email below), we have doubled our Gregorian-monthly contributions, beginning April 1. Since we are poor, this is still a trivial amount. Nevertheless, it is important to respond positively to our institutions.”
